The recent activities of the police of the Second precinct in arresting large numbers of persons for loitering in Upper Seventh street was resented by members of the Mid-City Citizens' Association last night. The committee will meet tomor-and decide on what action the association shall take.

"The police have been unduly vigilant on Seventh street within the last few weeks in making unwarranted arrests of people on the charge of unlawful assembly." said Joseph Berberich, a Seventh public health, etc., on the present valuation.

Wilbert, E. Wiley Stearns and D. N. Rust.

The committee also was instructed to investigate the fight being waged on saloons in Upper Seventh street by the Anti-Saloon League and a number of individuals. Members of the association who brought up the matter said that they were not indorsing the liquor business, but that they believed in fair play for all.
